THE WEEK IN SOCIETY.

Although the opening of the winter season is close at hand, the suburbs still hold society, and this notwithstanding several successive days of dreary skies and bleak winds. The neighborhood of the Meadow Brook Club down on Long Island was the central point of social interest during the latter half of the week, steeplechases being held on the Hempstead Plains on Thursday and again yester-The gloomy weather on Thursday was differfrom the superb skies and clear airs which usually make the autumn Hempstead Farm meeting so enjoyable. Still the races were interesting and at times exciting. Of course the Hempstead, Cedarhurst, Westbury and Wheatley contingent was present in full force, the Carroll, Belmont, Kernochan, Kennedy and Ripley families being st prominently represented. The attendance of of people from town was, probably on account of the threatening weather, meagre. The improve ments made on the farm, especially the grand stand, was generally praised. The boxes were not all occupied, but there were many handsome women in them, and that informal atmosphere among th occupants which can only prevail where everybody ws everybody else. Mrs. August Belmont, in a pretty costume of black and white, relieved with a dark and purple; Mrs. Charles Albert Stevens, sooking handsome in black; Mrs. Charles Carroll, Van Rensselaer Kennedy, Mrs. Charles Russell Hone and her mother, Mrs. John Hoey, Mrs. Carley Havemeyer, Mrs. Sidney Dillon Ripley, James Lorillard Kernochan and Miss May Bird were among those who enjoyed the sport from

Signs of a season in town are to be seen on every hand. The clubs are filled at evening, fashion-able restaurants are crowded, the theatres are well filled, and even Fifth-ave, gives evidence of the bustling life which marks this fashionable thoroughfare during the winter. Dates for receptions are being discussed, and coming-out teas being arranged, Mrs. P. A. Jay, of No. 38 West Forty-fifth-st., will give one of the first afternoon teas on November 25, and five days later Mrs. Thatcher M. Adams, of No. 15 West Seventeenthwill give an afternoon reception. Although nday and Tuesday evening dances, and the Monday cetillons have already been made known, little or nothing has been said about debutantes Last year's list was a long one, and seemed t mprise at least one resebud from every nursery Naturally, therefore, the number will be less th year, although the numerous dancing classes of last winter gave promise of many recruits. One the first of the coming-out teas will be given Mrs. Robert Abbe, who will introduc daughter, Miss Courtlandt Palmer, at a beautiful entertainment, which will be held at Sherry's on Miss Stein, another of the season's debutantes, will be introduced at a tea which will given for that purpose on December 16. Bridat tollets have been the rule during last week, and they have been as varied as the autumnal foliage The brides themselves were, of course, all fair The marriage of Miss Flora Davis, daughter of John H. Davis, of this city, to Lord Terence Black-wood, son of the Marquis of Dufferin and Ava. and British Ambassador to France, which took place in Paris on Monday last, was one of the most interesting matrimonial incidents of The wedding was to take place on Tuesdate was changed because the Russian officers at 4 o'clock on that afternoon, and so, to avoid the great crowds which were sure the Embassy to be difficult to the guests attending performed a day sooner than it was originally attended by a large number of prominent American and British residents and members of the Diplo-matic Corps. The Rev. Dr. Morgan, of the Church in Paris, and the Rev. Dr. Noves, of the English Church, were the officiating e under his father, it would surprise no one to hear of his promotion, and, later on, his transfer to Washington. Another wedding which was of considerable interest to fashionable New-Yorkers that of Miss Mathilde Allien, daughter of Potter. It was celebrated in London on Monday, quietly, only relatives being present at the cere-mony, which took place in the Roman Catholic Church of St. Peter and St. Edward, Buckingham Gate. The bride, who has lived abroad with her costume of beige colored satin de laine, trimmed with embroidered tuile and turquoise bine velvet.
Mr. and Mrs. Potter will pass the winter in the South of France, returning to New-York early in the spring for a visit. It is announced that the marriage of George Isham scott, son of George S.
Scott, of this city, to Mile, de Granville, daughter of Count de Granville, of France, will take place in the French Capital in a short time. The bride's family live at No. 3i A a short time. The bride's family live at No. 3i A a short time. The bride's family live at No. 3i A venue of Antin, Paris, Mr.
Scamping for a visit. It is announced that the French Capital in a short time. The bride's family live at No. 3i A venue of Antin, Paris, Mr.
Scamping for a visit. It is announced that the French Capital in a short time. The bride's family live at No. 3i A venue of Antin, Paris, Mr.
Scamping for a visit. A private letter from Paris emphatically dentes the report that the marriage of Miss Katharine Sands, the youngest daughter of Sanael S. Sands to Theodore Havemeyer, 1r., of this city, will take place late place and Mr. Havemeyer are still in Paris, where they intended to remain until about the first week in November, when they will go to London. It is their intention to sail from Liverpool or Southampton about the middle of November. The date of the wedding and the agonatic tending in have been the young people will be married shortly before the Christmas holidays, probably at the home of the bride in Fifthawe, as the young pair belong to different religions.

The marriage of Miss Carola Livingston, a daughter of Johnson Livingston, to Count de Cathedral of Miss Carola Livingston, a daughter of Johnson Liver, and the word of the word of the propose will be the form that of the propose will make the home of the bride in Fifthawe, as the young pair belong to different religions.

The marriage of Miss Carola Livingston, a daughter of Johnson Livingston, to Count de Cathedral of Miss Latter of Miss Carola Livingston and Miss Mostla Marie Guerin, daughter of Miss Carol embroidered tulle and turquoise blue velvet Mr. and Mrs. Potter will pass the winter in the

Miss Rottal Rhodes, of Providence, was maid of honor. The young couple started on a wedding to Nigara Falls, the World's Fair and Wash and the providence of the World's Fair and Wash and the providence of Mrs. K Bourne, to Professor William J. Kill Hotel of The World's Fair and Wash and the providence of Mrs. K Bourne, to Professor William J. Kill Hotel of The World's Fair and Wash and the country of Mrs. Mount of the Church, on Wednesday. On the same day in the chartry marriage of Miss Edith Draper, daughter of Mrs. Onto m. Branch and the Church of the Heaven's Professor of Mrs. In Kinhall, will be married to Lieutenant James E. Nolan, of the Ut. Cavally of the World's Fair and the Church of the Heaven's Rounders of Mrs. In Kinhall, will be married to Lieutenant James E. Nolan, of the Ut. Cavally of Charles Rich will take place on Wednesday include those of Mrs. How the World's Church, South Brooklyn, Mrs. Nothers of Mrs. Wash of the Will the place on Wednesday in Church of the Players on November Ut. American Control of the World's Rounders of Mrs. In Kinhall, will be married to Lieutenant James E. Nolan, of the Ut. Cavally of Church, South Brooklyn, Mrs. Nothers of Mrs. In Kinhall, will be married to Lieutenant James E. Nolan, of the Ut. Cavally of the World's Church, South Brooklyn, Mrs. Nothers of Mrs. In Kinhall, will be married to Lieutenant James E. Nolan, of the William Law of the World's Church, South Brooklyn, Mrs. Nothers of Church, William Loyd Golden, T. A. Professor of Church, South Brooklyn, Mrs. Nothers of Church, South Brooklyn, Mrs. Nothers of Church, South Bro drew to a table, where they each signed the certificate of marriage, which was afterward read aloud by J. Howard Wright, one of the elders of the society. The certificate was then rolled up, handed to one of the ushers, and the bridal party passed down the centre aisle and out of the building. The bride was attended by two bridesmails, Miss Katharine Lambert and Miss Helen Willets. The ushers were William Carey, Dr. Charles Farnham Collins, J. Henry Carson and the bridesroom's brother. Dr. Alexander Lambert. A wedding breakfast followed at the home of the bride's father, No. 55 West Fifty-fourth-st. Among the guests were Mrs. Elliot Cowdin, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Hoppin, Mrs. William Draper, Miss Draper, Mrs. Gaspar Griswald, Mrs. Herriman, Mr. and Mrs. C. Hoppin, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Richards, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mason, Dr. and Mrs. Edward Lambert, parents of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Willets, and Mr. and Mrs. William Eugene Parsons, who is to marry Miss Jeannette Le Brun Mott on Saturday of this week, gave his farewell bachelor dinner at the Manhattan Chib last evening. His guests were the men who will assist him at his wedding. They included Will-lam Andrews, Joseph Mott, Louis Bertschman, Carl Blenner, Sidney Shepard, Paul Farnum and Carroll Goldsboro.

THE MAN THAT STOPPED THE FIGHT AT CONEY ISLAND.

I've just been around to Kerrigan's, where oft

I to Hugh McLaughlin's went Just to stop the discontent

Made by the talk of prize fights down by Coney Island's shore: For election soon will come, the great event, Yes, election soon will come, the great event.

CHORUS.

As I smile on all at the City Hall, With a gentle, pious air, You might hear the Sheriff swear, Maybe hear McKane declare There'll be fights 'bimeby'; That they're off's a lie";

You can see them wink the other eye. At the man that stopped the fight at Coney Island.

For Mayor you are running me, and you must to the chalk. Though the effort very near Breaks your backs and legs. I fear, For we're watched by every voter with the keenness of a hawk. We must promise, argue, threaten, march and

As I smile on all at the City Hall, etc.

You go to see the prize-fight at the Coney Island

Say it's just the thing to do, But I really must the independent voters' fears Make them think that we all wickedness eschew,

What may happen in December leave to you. As I smile on all at the City Hall, etc.

WHARF RATS CAUGHT IN THEIR QUARTERS.

The police of the Old Slip station made a raid on the organization of "dock-rats" Friday night and arrested six. The gang is known as the "Dump Gang," from the fact that its members have headquarters under the dump at Pier No. 12, East River. The band has been active of late, stealing ropes and other articles from the ships lying in the neighborhood. At 12 o'clock on Friday night the neighborhood. At 12 o'clock on Friday night Roundsman Budd took six men and surrounded the place. The band had fitted up the interior of the pler in fine style. Sleeping bunks were ranged alongside the bulkheads, fitted with blankets, pil-lows, etc. Candles and lamps furnished light, and pictures adorned the wails. Cards, checkers and dominoes whiled away the time of the members while waiting for the approach of night, their time for business.

for business.

When the policemen descended into the head-quarters six of the band were asleep in their bunks. They were arrested without difficulty, the policemen seizing them as they sat up, sleeplly rubbing their eyes. In the Tombs Police Court yesterday they were each sentenced for a month to the Island.

RETIREMENT OF A. J. DREXEL, JR.

Ranking circles were not surprised by the pub-Drexel, ir., son of the late senior partner, had withdrawn from the firms of Drexel & Co., of Philadeldrawn from the firms of Drexel & Co., of Philadelphila; Drexel, Morgan & Co., of New-York, and Drexel, Harjes & Co., of Paris. The retiring partner is about thirty-five years old, and has always been fond of social and club life. His tastes have not run toward the banking methods for which his father became so famed and he has never had an inclination to take any prominent part in the business established by his father. Members of Drexel Morgan & Co., vesterday declined to discuss Mr. Drexel's retirement, except to say that he was merely following his wishes in the matter.
It is understood that the father's interest as an estate will remain in the three allied banking houses. It can be withdrawn only by the trustees and they do not contemplate any such action.

HE THRASHED THE JOCKEY.

W. C. HAYES THEN STRUCK A FRIEND WHO AN EXCITING SCENE AT LADY ABERDEEN'S INTERFERED.

A LIVELY TIME AT HEMPSTEAD'S CLOSING DAY -FOXHALL KEENE HAS TROUBLE WITH A PROFESSIONAL RIDER-THE JUMPER

> SMALL TALK INJURED IN THE HURBLE RACE.

The second and last meeting this fall of the Hempstead Farm Racing Association took place on the Hempstead Plains yesterday afternoon, and was attended by several stirring incidents that were not on the programme. The first of these uncted incidents occurred just after the third race had been run and won by Foxhall Keene, who rode Wazes. A professional jeckey named Rowan, who rode Cherokee Rose in the race, complained to the judges, who were John S. Hoey, G. How-land Leavitt and T. J. Hyde, that Mr. Keene had threatened to kill him if he ever got in his way again in another race. Mr. Keene was summoned, and when he was informed of the nature of the complaint made against him, acknowledged that he had made some remarks to that effect to Rowan, but that they had been caused by Rowan's actions in the first race at the meeting on Thursday, when Mr. Keene alleged that the professional jockey ran his horse deliberately across him, nearly cutting him off. The matter was referred to the Board of Stewards for action.

A HORSEWHIP USED ON A JOCKEY. The second of the exciting and interesting incidents of the day was at the close of the fourth race, when a gentleman jockey, W. C. Hayes, at tempted to horsewhip a professional jockey named Murray, and afterward struck James Mortimer, the superintendent of the course, in the face with his fist. The greatest excitement prevailed at the close of the race, when the spectators were sur-prised to see Mr. Hayes spring off his horse in front of the judges' stand and run over to Murray, who was mounted on Lady Macbeth, pull the lad to the ground and begin to beat him with his short horsewhip. A loud cry immediately went up from the people, who swarmed on to the track and surrounded the excited jockey. Mr. Mortimer was one of the first to reach the spot. He seized Mr. Hayes and ex-postulated with him for his conduct. The latter who was livid with rage, struck Mr. Mortimer a stinging blow in the face. Immediately several men interfered and led Mr. Hayes, who still struggled to get at the boy, away. The professional jockey es caped and hastened to the weighing-room. Th ing of the Board of Stewards was called to take immediate action in the matter, with the result that Mr. Hayes was peremptorily ruled off the course. Murray was allowed to ride, under protest, and was ordered to show cause why the attack

Mr. Hayes alleged that the young jockey fouled him several times in the race, and nearly threw

"He hedged me all around," he said, "and it was intentional on his part." Mr. Hayes regretted that he so far forgot himself as to chastise the youth in the manner he did, but he considered that he had just provocation to administer a sound thrashing to the jockey.

SMALL TALK'S EAD JUMP.

The third and last of the exciting happenings of the day was the accident which befell Small Talk, in the two-mile hurdle race. The horse, which was mounted by Hewitt, a professional jockey, made a bad jump at the second hurdle and fell to the ground, injuring its back so badly that it was some time before he could be removed from the track Aside from the accident and the assaults, the day was an enjoyable one for the two or three hundred persons who filled the grandstand and the grounds about it. A special train was run from Long Island City to the grounds, but in the four conches there were less than 150 passengers. The majority of the spectators came from the neighclose, and there was not even the faintest sugges tion of autumn in the atmosphere. Yellow, reds and purples were the prevailing tints in the many and purples were the prevaint that some tollets worn by the women, and these shades harmonized well with the sombre aspect of the day. There were two coaches on the grounds, those of August Heimont and Charles Carroll, brakes driven by Francis T. Underhill, Adelbert H. Alden, J. E. Smith Hadden and Louis V. Bell, and half a hundred vehicles of other styles and retterns.

HOW THE RACES WERE WON.

The races began promptly at 2:30 o'clock. There were five entries for the first, which was for ponies, 14 hands 2 inches and under, 200 yards, lengths by The Crow, ridden by Mr. Keene. Time seconds. Molly O. was second, and Sea Gull, ridden by James L. Kernochan, came in third.

Washington, Oct. 21.—The President and Mrs. Cleveland are living more quietly just now than has ever before been possible for them in this city. Outside of working hours the White House sees little of the President. Mrs. Cleveland still Keepts to her custom of either driving in town with him every morning or coming for bim in the afternoon, when they extend their drive around the country, now so beautiful in its autumn dress. Those who have seen Mrs. Cleveland lately say that she never before looked so handsome. Mrs. Perrine, who went to Chicago with the Postmaster-General and Mrs. Cleveland lately say that she never before looked so handsome. Mrs. Perrine, who went to Chicago with the Postmaster-General and Mrs. Cleveland lately say that she never before looked so handsome. Mrs. Perrine, who went to chicago with the Postmaster-General and Mrs. Cleveland lately say that she never before looked so handsome. Mrs. Perrine, who went to chicago with the Postmaster-General and Mrs. Cleveland lately say that she never before looked so handsome. Mrs. Perrine, who went to chicago with the Postmaster-General and Mrs. Cleveland lately say that she never before looked so handsome. Mrs. Perrine, who went to chicago with the Postmaster-General and Mrs. Cleveland lately say that she never before looked so handsome. Mrs. Perrine, who went to chicago with the postmaster-General and Mrs. Cleveland lately say that she never head of the country house without a special invitation. It is probable that the President land of the man as a base of the country of the country as the President la, and as a ble for the country as the President la, and as a ble for the country as the President la, and as a ble for the country as the President la, and as a ble for the country as the President la, and as a ble for the country as the President la, and as a ble for the country as the President la, and as a ble for the country as the President la, and as a ble for the country as the president land lately as the country of the president land latel

Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 21 (Special).-Digby Bell and his opera company, which was stranded here, managed to get away for Milwaukee this afternoon, the money for that purpose being advanced by Charles Bauer, proprietor of the Terre Haute Jouse. Mr. Bell lays the blame for the troubles c the company on the former manager, who, he says, was dissipated, and involved the company indebt.

NOCH INGE IN COLONEL MCCLURES CONDITION. Phadelphia, Oct. 21.-The condition of Colonel A. k McClure to-day was about the same as yes-terda. He slept for some time last night, and rester more comfortably.

Charles Macalester Married again.

Baltimer, Oct. 21 (Special).—A wedding which has long teen expeted by people in society in New-York, Philadelphia an Baltimore, took place to-day, when Miss Olive L. Wilkinsen, daughter of Walter S. Wilkinson, became the wife of Charles Macalester, of Philadelphia. There were prescribinly the immediate family of the bride and filehard Macalester, of New-York, who acted as best man for his brothe. Immediately after the ceremony, which was perform dhy a consin of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Macaleste started for the North on a wedding trip. This wedding VII, it is said, soon he followed by the marriage abroad f Mr. Wilkinson De brother of the tripe of to-day, to Mi. Macalester, the first wife of Charles Macalester. The Macalesters and the Wilkinsons have long been friends. While travelling with the Wilkinson family in the Soon last winter, Mr. Macalester formed an attachment for Ms. Wilkinson, and her brother became attracted to Mrs. Mcalester. Mr. and Mrs. Macalester accordingly agased 1 separate. They were recently divorced, and the matrice of to-day was thus made possible. Mrs. Macalester is at resent in Europe, and it is reported that her marriage to Ir. Wilkinson will take place in Paris.

PULLED DOWN THE FLAG.

TRISH VILLAGE

IRISHMEN HAUL DOWN THE EMBLEM OF GREAT BRITAIN-THREE ARRESTS MADE AFTER

Chicago, Oct. 21.-There was almost a riot in Lady Aberdeen's Irish village of industries to-night. A second attempt was made by about fifteen Irishfloating from the tower of Blarney Castle in honor of Crnada. The Irishmen gained access to the top of the tower and tore down the English emblem because they did not consider it ought to be unfurled in an Irish village. They were detected in the act by some of the village employes, and the guards drove the offenders out into the Midway.

The gang returned stealthily in a short time and climbed over one of the side fences. The guards were on the alert, however, suspecting that another attempt would be made as soon as the flag was strung up again, and pounced upon the intruders. Then came the exciting part of the scene. The guards summoned the patrol wagon and tried to arrest the whole number in the face of threats from a crowd of several thousands of sympathizers who quickly gathered around the village. The wagon came on the double-quick, and the force of guards tried to cope with the anti-English visitors. No sooner had they got one or two of their prisoners into the wagon, than the men who pressed around it pulled them out. Three of the ringleaders were finally taken prisoners after a pitched battle of some minutes' duration.

The Earl of Aberdeen arrived at the village with his secretary just after the trouble had ended and was very indignant at the insult which had been offered the flag of Her Majesty's dominions. guards drove the offenders out into the Midway.

ANOTHER CYCLONE COMING.

CENTRAL OFF THE FLORIDA COAST LAST NIGHT. AND ON ITS WAY NORTHWARD.

October is such a stormy month that no or has formed off the Florida coast, and is on its way north. At the beginning of the month the weather bureau predicted that there would be high gales from time to time over the North Atlantic, and that occasional West Indian cyclo might be expected. One of the latter has already come, the tale of whose devastations is not yet complete, and now another is coming, which will probably do as much, if not more, damage than coast, while the edges of its whirling robes left a rall of rain over the Eastern Gulf and South Atlantic States. As far north as Norfolk, Va., the country was drenched by a furious downpour. Like country was drenched by a furious downpoor. Lake all these West Indian storms, the exact course of the coming hurricane cannot be fully predicted. When the centre reaches Cape Hatteras it may recurve and flee across the ocean. In that case New-York will get only the edge of the storm, and will escape with a good wetting and a high wind. But if the centre manages to pass up far enough to reach this city, the weather to-night will be worse than that on the night following the last of the America's Cup races.

worse than that on the night following the last of the America's Cup races.

Perhaps, though this is not likely, the storm may hold off until Monday morning, and then make matters as unpleasant as possible for everybody. There was a heavy fog at Sandy Hook last night.

A dispatch from Key West says that the cyclone, which first appeared off Cuba, was violent there all day yesterday, and that severe weather was expected. All large vessels had sought anchorage in the upper harbor and all smaller boats had been hauled up on the beach. From this it seems that whatever may be the fortune of New-York, vessels between here and the West Indies are likely to have a rough experience.

PROGRESS OF THE WEST INDIAN CYCLONE. New-Orleans, Oct. 21.-A dispatch to "The Picayune" from Key West, Fla., says: "West Indies yclone reported by the weather bureau to be central off the west coast of Cuba was manifest here all yesterlay, and indications point to severe weather. All large vessels sought safe anchorage in the upper harber and small boats hauled up on the beach. The weather observer says the barome-ter is failing rapidly."

MCKINLEY IN THE OHIO CAPITAL.

AN IMMENSE THRONG GATHERS AT THE RINK IN COLUMBUS TO HEAR THE GOVERNOR.

Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 21 (Special) .- "You all know crat, but then I am a protectionist, and that is the reason I am here to introduce Governor McKinley." aid G. A. Clifton, an old soldler and an ex-Democratic County Commissioner of Licking County, at Pataskala this afternoon at the meeting there.
"Our friend," said the Governor, "is one of entered the Foreign Office in 1851. He was Acting feel as he does. greatest wool-growing county in the Union, Governor McKinley addressed an audience this afternoon of more than 5,000 people. own where Neal opened his campaign to a crowd of 1.500, and that, too, after the backwoods had it by over 800 in 1891, and Cleveland by about 1,300. to 500, for, as an old soldler said to Governor Mc-Kinley to-day: "I voted for Cleveland last year. It was my first, and if God forgives me, I'll not do so again. And I have three sons here wearing McKinley badges, and there are fifteen former Democrats in my precinct who will vote for you." Newark is as unfavorably affected by the present financial distress as other manufacturing cities, and those of the industries that are going are working on short time. The welcome given to McKinley in Newark equalled any of the great receptions he had met with in this stirring campaign.

Great as was the meeting in Newark to-day, and magnificent as have been previous assemblages, none of them equalled, with the exception of those at Cleveland, Akron and Toledo, the great throng of people in the rink at Columbus to-night. The rink holds 6,000 people, and probably more, and it was completely filled, and nearly as many men were on the outside who could not push their way in. There was a parade, in which about 5,500 men took part, before the meeting. All along the line there were people four and five deep who cheered the marching men.

The sky glowed with red fire, sky-rockets and every kind of fireworks. Some of the transparencies read as follows: "Democratic Big Two-Hoke Smith and Hard Times?" "Factories Closed—Democratic Good Times." "Hoke Smith Can't Take Away an Honorable Discharge!" When McKinley entered the hall there was such an uproar that the building trembled. He was introduced by ex-Attorney-General Watson. The Governor's speech was the best he has made, and when he had finished the crowd fought for a chance to shake his hand. And this is a Democratic county by about 1,200. But that plurality will be reduced this year.

POLITICS IN NEW JERSEY.

Trenton, N. J., Oct. 21.-W. H. Appar and John H. Backes, attorneys representing the Mercer County Democratic Executive Committee, have begun pro-ceedings in the court to prevent County Clerk Gumthe official bullets as the regular Democratic canditrict. A similar action was taken to-day against Edward Reading in the Hd District. Justice Abbett has served an order on Gummere from passing upon the valility of Jamison's nomination. The matter will come up before Justice Abbett on Monday.

matter will come up before Justice Abbett on Jion-day.

Red Bank, N. J., Oct. 21.—The Republicans of Ocean County have nominated the following county licket: For member of Assembly, J. T. Burton, of Tuckerton, County Clerk, Abram C. B. Haven, of Toms River; Sherlff, Frank M. Chambers, of Toms River; County Collector, George L. Shim, of New-Egypt; coroners, Stephen F. Jones, H. E. Shoe-maker and R. A. Crane.

A CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE APPOINTED.

The Seventeenth Ward Republican Association of Brooklyn has appointed the following Campaign Com-mittee: E. Dwight Church, Corn-lies H. Tichout, George H. Nason, Thomas Foulks, Thomas J. Percival, Benja-min Raphael, John Graham, Edward E. Robertsen and

THE REGISTRATION IN SCHENECTADY. Schenectady, N. Y., Oct. 21.-The total registration 950 less than for the first three days last year.

Providence, R. I., Oct. 21.—At the Pawtucket Repub-lican City Convention this afternoon Henry E. Tiepke

New-Bedford, Mass., Oct. 21.—Horatio N. Durfee, aged fifty years, shot himself in this city to-day, and will die. He was a son of the late James Durfee and a native of this place. About 1870 he was elected treasurer of the Mechanics' Mill, in Fall River, which place he held until about a year and a half ago. Since then he had been engaged in the manufacture of soap in Boston.

In compliance with the request of many admirers

THE DRAMA.

83 HAMLET

Mr. Willard, who is acting in Boston as Hamlet, appears to lay much emphasis on the fact that he has based his acting copy of "Hamlet" on the First Folio. The text of that Folio is full of errors, and in many instances,—certainly in five,—that Folio is merely a reprint of earlier Quartos. All editions of Shakespeare, however, are based, to a greater or less extent, on the First Folio. To follow it implicitly would be to go wrong. There is no actor living who might not profit by the patient and picus labor that Shakespeare scholars,—such as Dyce and labor that Shakespeare scholars,—such as Dyce and labor that Shakespeare scholars,—such as Dyce and COLOGINS. At the residence, 150 East 02d-st., on Sunday evening, October 22d. at 8 o'clock p. m. Chark —Thursday morning, at 175 West 58th-st., Kate L., wife of W. A. Clark of Butte. Mont. L., wife of W. A. Clark of W. A. Clark of W. A. Clark of W. A. Clark o Folio. The text of that Folio is full of errors, and Furness and the Cambridge editors,-have bestowed upon the duty of ascertaining the correct text of Shakespeare. An appeal to the First Folio, if meant as an authoritative settlement, seems, to the

Mr. Willard, it is said, has adopted, from the First Folio, the reading of "the innobled queen," instead of "the mobiled queen." That choice the text is good, but it is not new, and therefore no especial stress can properly be laid upon it as a discovery. Edwin Booth adopted that reading, at least sixteen years ago, and always reading, "innobled queen," appears in Booth's Prompt-Book of "Hamlet," published in 1878. The word "innobled" means, of course, "ignobled"— that is to say, degraded. And the comment made in Booth's Prompt-Book explains that the Player's allusion to "the innobled queen,"—Hecuba,—Is, in the mind of Hamlet, immediately suggestive of his mother, Queen Gertrude, who has indeed been degraded, and upon whom Hamlet's thoughts are continually fixed. Hence his interruption of the Player's speech. The propriety of that reading was suggested to Booth by William Winter, who edited his Prompt-Book series of plays, in fifteen volumes, in 1377-78. Booth was himself a fine Shakespears scholar and he introduced much suggestive and valuable "business" into the play of "Hamlet". especially, for example, the "business" of the clown, with the skulls and fool's cap. Adequate embodi-ment of the Dane, however, requires something more than "readings" and "business."

Mr. Willard, it is said, has abolished front scenes and, in particular, has given Claudius "a full set" for that wonderful speech which follows upon his vain attempt at prayer. That also has been doneand, with a competent actor in the character of and, with a competent actor in the character of Claudius (which is a great part, and one of the best in Shakespeare), it ought always to be done. The most prominent of Mr. Willard's innovations seems to be his practical heed of Osric's specification of "rapier and dagger." That is a triffe. Hamlet's comment has in it a touch of instructive satire: "That's two of his weapons." The King says "For your rapier most especially"; and Hamlet says "Let the folls be brought." Obviously it is the "bated" rapier,—the rapier with the button on it,—the foll,—that should be used. But the fencing scene is always tedious, no matter what weapons are taken, and the main purpose should be to bring it to an end as soon as possible. All questions of historical accuracy in the treatment of "Hamlet" are more or less vain. That great tragedy is a poem; and while, of course, it should be dressed and embellished with due consideration of antique environment, the essential necessity is poetical treatment. Mr. Willard has evidently made a conscientious and worthy effort to put an old classic on the stage in an inpressive manner, and, while no quality in his acting hitherto has indicated him as a possible Hamlet, there seems to be no good reason why he should not play the part so as to win popular admiration and thoughtful respect. Public knowledge of "Hamlet" has always been small, but public interest in it continues to be lively and extensive. Somebody must play Hamlet, and whoever plays it will be heard.

One comment that has been printed on Mr. Willard's embodiment of Hamlet is exceedingly funny—the comment, namely, that "the melancholy mood was much too strongly emphasized." That is simply impossible. The melancholy mood of Hamlet has never yet, upon the stage, been emphasized strongly enough. Claudius (which is a great part, and one of th impossible. The melancholy mosel of Hamlet has never yet, upon the stage, been emphasized strongly enough. Hamlet is misery—and he is nothing else, In one of Shakespeare's implied scenes he goes into weeping hysterics. "He weeps for what is done." In several of them he is melancholy mad. Look at him, for example, in this picture, painted by the poor, fragile, frightened Ophelia, who has loved him:

"My Lord, as I was sewing in my chamber, Lord Hamlet,—with his doublet all unbrac'd; No hat upon his head; his stockings foul'd; Ungarter'd and down-gyved to his ankle; Pale as his shirt; his knees knocking each other; And, with a look so piteous in its purport, As if he had been loosed out of hell, To speak of horrors,—he comes before me."

OBITUARY.

LORD VIVIAN.

Rome, Oct. 21.-Lord Vivian, British Ambassador to Italy, whose illness from acute pneumonia was anonunced last night, died at 8 o'clock this morning.

Hussey Crespigny Vivian, G. C. M. G., C. B., Our friend," said the Governor, "is one of housands of Democrats in Ohio this year who sed as he does.

"In Newark, seat of Licking County, which is the reatest wool-growing county in the Union, Governor McKinley addressed an audience this after-boon of more than 5.99 people. Newark is the way where Neal opened his campaign to a crowd."

"In Newark is the control of the Foreign Office in INI. He was Acting Agent and Consul-General in Egypt from 1875 to 1879, Minister to Switzerland from 1879 to 1870, and Minister to Denmark from 1881 to 1881, when he was appointed the stransferred to Belgium. He had been Ambassador to Italy since 1891. He was Acting the provided the foreign Office in INI. He was Acting the control of the provided that the provided the foreign Office in INI. He was Acting the provided that the p

1864 he came to Baltimore and became professor of pen-manship, bookkeeping and mathematics in the business manship, bookkeeping and mathematics in the business college of Bryant, Stratton & Sadier. He afterward formed a perforship with A. H. Eaton and established the Eaton & Burnett Business College.

Budalo, Oct. 21.—Dr. Charles II. Fisher, of Providence.
R. I. secretary of the Board of Health of that State, died at the Continental Hotel here this morning. He had been in Chicago attending the Health Congress, and while been in Chicago attending the Health Congress, and while there caught a severe cold. He grew worse on the train and stopped here for medical attention.

Port Henry, N. Y., Oct. 21 (Special.)—H. C. Me-Rory, of this place, died at Chicago to-day of typhold fever. Mr. McRory was a prominent Democrat and leading lawyer in Northern New-York. He was Presi-dential elector in 1892 on the Democratic ticket. He was about forty years of axe, unmarried and had been in active law market in this place for the last eightern of sparring at Hemenway gymnasium, at Harvard, was stricken with apoplexy while walking in Cam-bridge late yesterday afternoon. He was removed to the Massachusetts General Hospital.

Boston, Oct. 21.-Edward L. Ferris, the instructor

THE PASSING OF THE BOWERY MUSEUM.

The recent financial stringency has driven many of the Bowery dime museums to the wall. Museums which seemed to have done a profitable business for years have gone under lately. One of the oldest museum landmarks, which has stood in Chatham Square for years, has failen to deery. In other days crowds visited it all day long, police of its erier was heard in the land.

DIRECT FROM CHICAGO. Office the World's Columbian Exposition, Publishing Department,
Jackson Park, Chicago, Oct. 19, 1893.

Jackson Park, Chicago, Oct. 13, 1893.

To C. C. Shayne.
You have obtained awards as per enclosed memorandums received by us from the Department of Awards, in consequence of which you are entitled to an Official Ribbon as evidence of your successful competition.

These Ribbons, authorized by the World's Columbian Exposition, are now being issued preliminary to the medals which will not be ready for distribution for some months. We inclose you herewith a small facsimile, printed on paper, which will convey an idea of the style of the ribbons.

W. B. KONKEY COMPANY, Official Publishers to the World's Columbian Exposition.

For sale by all leading wine dealers and grocers.

H. F. Bindseil.

Manufacturer of finest furs at lowest prices, 801 BROADWAY, near 17th-st.

MARRIED.

MARRIED.

LAMBERT-DIMMICK-On Thursday, October 19th, at noon, in Grace Church. Honesdale, Pa., by Rev. George C. Hall. Lucy Passell Dimmick, daughter of Hon. William H. Dimmick, to Mr. John Wallace Lambert.

LAMBERT-WILLETS-On Saturday, October 21st, at the Friends Meeting House, on Rutherford Place, Elizabeth Willett, daughter of John T. Willets, to Doctor Samuel W. Lambett, both of New-York City, MITCHELL-GUERIN-On October 18th, at the Church of St. Mary the Virgin, 45th-st. by Rev. Thes. Mc. Kee Brown, Rostia Marie, daughter of Honel Guerin, to Robert Chamberiain Mitchell, all of New-York. MONTIGOMERY-HUNT-On Saturday, October 21st, at Rhinebeck on Hudson, by the Rev. Albert Hunt, D. D., Grace Sands Hunt, daughter of the Rev. Andrew Hunt, D. D., to Henry Eginton Montgomery, of New-York City.

PEIRCE-CARLE-On Wednesday, Oct. 18, 1805, rt St.

City.

PEIRCE—CABLE—On Wednesday, Oct. 18, 1893, rt St.
Paul's Chu ch, Owego, N. Y., by the Rev. Dr. Kidder, Sarah Frederica, daughter of F. O. Cable, to Mr.
Lincoln Peirce, of New-York.

ROSAINE—DETMOLD—On October 21, by the Rev. Dr.
Bolles, Anna Moore, daughter of Dr. William Detmold, to Benjamin F. Romains.

DIED.

BELL-On Wednesday, October 18, 1803, David Bell, be, aged 35, husband c. Elizabeth Fielding Bell.
Relatives and friends are invited to attend the services at the residence of his parents, 5 West 59th-st., on Sabbath, October 22, 1803, at 6 p. m.
Please omit flowers.
Burlal at the convenience of the family.
BOYD-Suddenly, on Friday, October 20th, 1803, Robert H. Boyd, in the 66th year of his age.
Funeral from his late residence, No. 18 Strong Piaca, Brooklyn, on Monday, 23d inst., at 3 o'clock p. m.
CLARK-Thursday morphes at 175 West 58th-st. Kate.

HODGES—At the residence of her brother-in law, Dwight Townsend, 344 Lexington-ave., on Saturday morning, October 21st, 1893, Caroline Keth Hodges. Funeral at Rutland, Vermout, Tuesday, October 24th.

MUNDY-Priday evening, October 20th. 1803. Lanza J. Mundy, widow of Edward C. Mundy, M. D., and daughter of the late General Joseph Andrews, of Salem, Mass. Puneral private. Salem (Mass.) papers please copy.

PLYMITON-On Friday, the 20th inst., Charles B. Plymids. PLYMITON-On Friday, the 20th inst., Charles a. Plympton.
The 'uneral services will be held Sunday. 22d inst. at 5 p. m., at his late residence, No. 152 W. 14th-st. Jersey City papers please copy.
SMITH-At Morristown, N. J., October 19th, Julia Wright Shumway, wife of Goo. L. Smith. Interment at Springfield, Muss.
THOMPSON-Go Saturday, 21st inst., Fanny Evans, wife of Richard Thompson.
Notice of funeral in Monday's paper.
WADE-On Saturday morning, 21st inst., at her late residence, 18 South Portland-ave., Hannah Wade, widow of George Wade.
Notice of funeral hereafter.

Notice of funeral nervalue?

WARD-Entered into rest on Saturday morning, October 21st, James M. Ward.
Relatives and riends are cordially invited to attend the funeral services at his late residence. Valley Pond, West Grame, N. J., on Monday afternoon, October 23d, at 3 o'clock.

Special Notices.

A .- By the Fifth Avenue Auction Rooms. 228 FIFTH AVENUE. WM. B. NORMAN, Auctioneer. THURSDAY AFTERNOON, OCTOBER 26, And following days at 2:30 o'clock. HIGHLY ATTRACTIVE SALE Of an immense assortment of MODERN PORCELAINS, CHINA and GLASSWARE. Are the stock of a leading importer, amounting in value to $30,000, representing all the most celebrated European factories.

A large number of Vienna, Limoges, Haviland, Sevres, and Royal Worcester Dinner, Game, Fish, Dessert, Salad, and Tea Sets, Plates, Cups and Saucers, &c., &c. CABINETS AND DESKS iniaid with Dresden plaques, Vittrine tables, &c. EXHIBITION TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY, OCT. 24TH AND 25TH, from 9 A. M. to 6 P. M. A rare opportunity is offered to secure a part or whole of a magnificent private collection, belonging to a genti-man of this city, who is renting his house for a term of year. It consists of rure specimens of Japanese and Chinese metal and porcelain works, Ivories, Paintings and thugs. In he wnoic collection was gathered during a period of 80 years, and only after the most careful and thorough inspection were the different articles secured. The col-lection is in his own house. Any communication must be made to the owner, who will meet interested paries. ARTISTIC, Tribune Office.

ALTISTIC, Tribune Office.

A.-25 to 40 per cent saved on Groceries, Wines, Liquors, Teas, Collees, Canned Goods, Hisms, Bacon, Produce, Fruits, Butter, etc., sold at wholesale prices in reasonable quantities; goods delivered free in and out of the city. Send for price list. ASPELL & COMPANY, 314-316 Greenwich-st.

Best Place, Elite Patrons. Est'd 1868.

Dr. J. Parker Pray's Manicure and Chiropolist Parlors, 56 West 25d-5t. Dr. Pray gives personal treatment for all diseases of the feet and nails (no as-st-sant, removes warts, moles and factal blembies, painless treatment, listant relief. Moderate charges. Office hours 9 to 6, Finger nails artistically beautified by 5 skilled manicures. Dr. Pray's renowned and unequalled toilet preparations sold everywhere, prepared by fir. J. Parker Pray Co.

People used to go to England to buy the Crown Lavender Salts. Sold now in crown-stoppered bottles. Reject worthless Foreign mails for the week ending October 28th will close (promptly be all cases) at this office, as follows: SUNDAY—at a p. m. for Costa Rica, via Limon, per st. S. A. Dumos, com New-Orieaus, at 8:30 p. m. for St. Pierre-Miqueian, per steamer from North Sydney. MONDAY—at 3 p. m. for Bellee, Puerto Cortez and Guatemaia, per s. s. Breakwater, from New-Orieaus; at 3 p. m. for Bocas del Toro, per s. s. Ryvonger, from New-Orieaus.

3 p. m. for Boeas del Toro, per s. s. Ryvenger, from NewOrlesses.

TUESDAY—At 6 a. m. for Europe, per s. s. Havel, via Southampton and Bremen tletters for Iteland must be directed "per Havel"); at "3 p. m. for Bluefields, per s. s. A. Zambrano, from New-Orleans.

WEDDAS-BLAY—At 3 s. m. for Europe, per s. s. Berlin, via Southampton (letters must be directed "per Berlin"); at 8 a. m. for Fortune Island, Haytl, and Savanilla, etc., per s. s. Alhos; at 11 a. m. (supplementary 12 m.) for Venezuela and Curacao, per s. s. Philadelphia (letters for Savanilla, etc., via Curacao must be directed "per Philadelphia"); at 1 p. m. for Cula, via Hayana, per s. s. City of Alexandria; at 1 p. m. (supplementary 2:30 p. m.) for Europe, via Queenstown, per s. a. Teutonic; at 2:30 p. m. for Belgium direct, per s. s. Rhynland, via Antwerp fletters must be directed "per Rhynland"; at "3 p. m. for Puerto Cortex, per s. s. City of Italias, from New Orleans; at 8:30 p. m.) for Newfoundland, per steamer trem Halifax.

THURSDAY—At 1 p. m. (supplementary 1:30 p. m.) for Bernuda, per s. s. Crimeco; at 1 p. m. (supplementary 1:30 p. m.) for Bernuda, per s. s. Crimeco; at 1 p. m. (supplementary 1:30 p. m.) for Newfoundland, per s. s. Orlanes; at 1:30 p. m.) for Newsoundland, per seeamer trem m. for Puerto Cortex, per s. p. for Newfoundland, per seeamer trem m. for Puerto Cortex, per s. City of Rudias, from New 1:30 p. m.) for Newfoundland, per seeamer trem Halifax.

THURSDAY—At 1 p. m. (supplementary 1:30 p. m.) for Bernuda, per s. Orlanes; at 1:30 p. m.) for Newsoundland, per seeamer trem m. for Puerto Cortex, per s. Orlanes; at 1:30 p. m.) for Newfoundland, per seeamer trem m. for Puerto Cortex, per s. Orlanes; at 1:30 p. m.) for Newfoundland, per seeamer trem m. for Puerto Cortex, per s. Orlanes per s. O the older lawyer in Georgia, and well known in the selon, died here last night at the age of seventy-four actioned Lanier was the senior member of the firm micr & Anderson, his partner being at one time Atternation of this State.

Anderson his partner being at one time Atternation of the State and the selon of the State attender of this State.

Althore, Oct. 21.—Professor Elljah Burnett died here draw atternation in the was in 1840 at Mariton, Burlington County, N. J. In he came to Baitimore and became professor of perhalp, bookkeeping and mathematics in the business of a partnership with A. H. Eaton and established at a partnership with A. H. Eaton and established aton & Burnett Business College.

Althory of the Board of Realth of that State, died in Continental Hotel here this morning. He had in Chicago attending the Health Congress, and while caught a severe cold. He grew worse on the train stopped here for medical attention.

At Harvard Instructor Stricken.

At Harvard Instructor Stricken.

Stop, Oct. 21.—Edward L. Ferris, the instructor surring at Hemenway gymnasium, at Harvard, see late yesterday aftermoor. He was removed the Massachusetts General Hospital.

THE PASSING OF THE BOWERY MUSEUM.

Beligions Notices.

ALL SOULS' CHURCH, Madison-ave, and 60th-st.—Rev. ALFRED MOMERIE, LL, D., of London, will preach at 11 a. m and 4:30 p. m.

ASSOCIATION HALL (Twenty-third Street Baptist Church), Rev. THOMAS DIXON, Jr., preaches series moraing sermons on "The Coming Revolution." Subjects: "The Tremendous Issues Involved."

CHRIST CHURCH, Boulevard and 71st-st., Dr. J. 8. SHIPMAN, Rector.-Morning services, 11 o'clock, Even-CARNEGIE HALL—SPIRITUALISTS.—Dr. F L. R. WILLIS will lecture, morning, 11: evening, S. Seats tree. Afternoon, 3. psychical experience meeting; good mediums will give tests.

CHURCH OF THE ASCENSION, 5th-ave, and 10th st., Rev. PERCY S. GRANT, Rector.—Services, Sunday Oct. 22d. Holy Communion at 0 a. m. Services at 1 a. m. and 4 p. m. A shortened service in the Chapel, 1 West 11th-st., at 8 p. m. The Rector will officiate.

FIVE POINTS HOUSE OF INDUSTRY, 155 Worth st., WILLIAM F. BARNARD, Superintendent.—Service of song every Sunday at 3:30 p. m. The service is almost wholly by the children of the institution. Public in vited. HOLY TRINITY CHURCH, Harlem, Lenox-ave.

122d-st., Rev. C. D'W. PRIDGMAN D. D., Rector.—
communion, 8 a. m. Morning prayer, with sermon a, m. Evencong, 4 p. m. Evening prayer, with mon, 7:45 p. m. The Rector will preach at services. Scats free at evening services.

NEW-YORK CHURCH OF CHRIST, "Scientist," Mrs. LAURA LATHROP, Pastor, Hodgson Hall, S. E. corner 5th-ave, and 15th-st. Service Sunday, 10:45 a. m. Bible study, 12 m. International lesson, interpreted according to Christian Science. Service Thursday, 8 p. m. All cordially invited.

ST. BARTHOLOMEW'S CHURCH, 44th-st. and son-ave. Rev. DAVID II. GREER, D. D., Recto vice in the morning at 11 o'clock. Service in the noon at 4 o'clock. Dr. GREER will officiate.

ST. MARK'S CHURCH, 2d-ave, and 10th-st.—Service at 11 a. m. The Rev. Dr. RYLANCE will preach of "The Pulpit and Politics." Service at 8 p. m. Dr. RYLANCE will preach on "The Character of Jesus Not a Product of His Age."

SOCIETY FOR ETHICAL CULTURE.—Lectu Professor FELIX ADLER, at Music Hall, corner 5 and 7th-ave. at 11:15 a. m. Subject: "What We Fer." All interested ere invited.